

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE
Security Committee

SECOM-D-216

Major General John B. Marks, USAF
Assistant Chief of Staff, Intelligence
Department of the Air Force
Washington, D.C. 20330

Dear General Marks:

I have been advised that Colonel Herbert Kamm is retiring shortly from active duty, and that Colonel Robert A. Shiver is recommended to succeed him as Air Force member of the DCI Security Committee and Chairman of the Committee's Compartmentation Subcommittee. Colonel Kamm's understanding and knowledge of security matters, coupled with his constructive approach to this Committee's responsibilities, have contributed measurably to enhancing the protection of sensitive intelligence information.

I am pleased to accept Colonel Shiver as the new Air Force member of the Security Committee and Chairman of its Compartmentation Subcommittee. I understand that he brings a good depth of experience and ability to the task, and I look forward to him representing the Department of the Air Force with the same degree of distinction evidenced by Colonel Kamm.

Sincerely,

STATINTL

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE
Security Committee

SECOM-D-215

Colonel Herbert H. Kamm, USAF
Director, Security & Communications Management
Department of the Air Force (AFIS/INS)
Washington, D.C. 20330

Dear Colonel Kamm:

Thank you for your letter of 9 May 1980 advising of your retirement from active duty. Your able and conscientious service to the Security Committee will be missed. I particularly appreciate the support you have given the Intelligence Community as Chairman of the Compartmentation Subcommittee, and as a key player in implementation of the APEX system. Your constructive counsel has been helpful to me in exploring and resolving complex security issues.

I look forward to working with Colonel Shiver as your successor. Thank you again for your support and assistance. Please accept my best wishes on your retirement.

Sincerely,

STATINTL
